General meeting is 7:00 P.M. to 9 P.M.

The Monterey Youth Center - 646-3873

777 Pearl St., Monterey (Dennis the Menace Park)

PROGRAM FOR FEBRUARY

Our demo artist will be Robert Lewis. He will offer instruction and demonstration of "Shiny: The Challenge of Reflections in a Still Life". The discussion of challenges of reflection in still life painting will be addressed as Robert will explain, with demonstration, how the artist sees a shiny object, what to look for, and how to translate that into paint for a realistic effect. Robert Lewis is a professional still life and landscape oil painter living and painting on and around the Monterey peninsula. Lewis splits his time between studio and plein air locations, still life and landscape. The balance of these two venues is essential to his development as an artist and to the freshness of this work, one informing the other, one keeping the other new and vital. Lewis has enjoyed competing in a number of plein air competitions around the nation, including the Carmel Art Festival where he has been honored three times, Plein Air Easton where the Academy Art Museum has added one of his pieces to their permanent collection, and San Luis Obispo Plein Air, Sedona Plein Air, and Callaway Gardens Plein Air.
